

Exploratory Foreign Language/Spanish 1

Guiding Principles

- a. Clear and Effective Communicator
- b. Creative and Practical Problem Solver
- c. Integrative and Informed Thinker
- d. Responsible and Involved Citizen
- e. Self-Directed and Lifelong Learner

Habits of Work

- a. Academic Responsibility
- b. Classroom Responsibility
- c. Perseverance
- d. Social Skills

Communities

- a. Students will encounter a sympathetic native speaker and interpret their ability to communicate effectively. (Latin excluded)
- b. Students will explain the importance of culture and acquisition of the target language in a 21st century global economy.
- c. Students will identify connections between target language and another content area using either English or the target language.
- d. Students will use their knowledge of the target language to identify and make connections with specialized vocabulary used in various professions.

Comparisons of Practices, Products, and Perspectives

- a. Students will compare the target language with English to better understand language systems.
- b. Students will describe practices and perspectives of a culture(s) in which the target language is spoken.

-
- c. Students will explain how products, practices, and perspectives of a culture in which the target language is spoken contribute to the culture in which the student lives.

 - d. Students will explain how products such as political structures, historical artifacts, literature, and/or visual and performing arts reflect the perspectives of a culture(s) in which the target language is spoken.

 - e. Students will identify and explain how perspectives of a culture(s) are related to practices of a culture(s) in which the target language is spoken, referencing authentic materials.
-

Interpersonal
Communication

- a. Students will be able to ask and respond to questions about familiar topics based on their own lives and interests.

 - b. Students will be able to comprehend and apply vocabulary in appropriate contexts when engaged in conversations and correspondence.

 - c. Students will be able to express and elicit feelings and emotions in the target language.

 - d. Students will be able to provide and exchange detailed information on familiar topics in formal and informal social situations.
-

Interpretive
Communication

- a. Classical languages only- students will provide literal translations of Latin and ancient Greek texts. Responses are in English.

 - b. Students will apply comprehension strategies to interpret text.

 - c. Students will identify main ideas, topics and specific information in a variety of authentic auditory and written materials.
-

Presentational
Communication

- a. Students will deliver oral presentations related to the culture in which the target language is spoken.

- b. Students will narrate stories about experiences or events familiar to them orally.

- c. Students will read authentic passages aloud with appropriate pronunciation, phrasing and intonation.

- d. Students will write narrative and expository/ informational compositions in the target language.