

Grades 3, 4, 5

Adopted 2021

The student understands how personal responsibility relates to being trustworthy. The student is expected to: 3-5.CHT.1

- A. identify and define traits of trustworthiness, including reliability and loyalty; 3-5.CHT.1.A
- B. identify and practice strategies for being honest and punctual; and 3-5.CHT.1.B
- C. define and identify examples of unethical behavior. 3-5.CHT.1.C

The student understands how personal choices are associated with responsibility. The student is expected to: 3-5.CHT.2

- A. explain what it means to be responsible for personal decisions and actions; 3-5.CHT.2.A
- B. describe positive and negative consequences of personal decisions and actions; 3-5.CHT.2.B
- C. identify and demonstrate ways to practice self-control; and 3-5.CHT.2.C
- D. describe the relationship between being responsible and being accountable. 3-5.CHT.2.D

The student understands how personal actions demonstrate characteristics of caring. The student is expected to: 3-5.CHT.3

- A. describe how feelings impact decision making and behaviors; 3-5.CHT.3.A
- B. explain how one can show patience, consideration, and compassion; and 3-5.CHT.3.B
- C. define empathy and discuss the connection between empathy and charity. 3-5.CHT.3.C

The student understands that personal responsibility is associated with citizenship. The student is expected to: 3-5.CHT.4

- A. describe the differences and similarities among gratitude, respect, and courtesy; 3-5.CHT.4.A
- B. compare fairness and justice; and 3-5.CHT.4.B
- C. discuss the importance of obeying laws and rules. 3-5.CHT.4.C