

Grade 4

Demonstrate comprehension of fictional texts and use word analysis strategies

1 Understand the meaning of words in passages that are read to the student or that the student reads. R-4.1

CC. The words could be shown with or without a graphic representation or could appear in a sentence. R-4.1.CC

---

2 Answer questions about a fiction passage that is read to the student or that the student reads. R-4.2

CC. The passage may range from a sentence with six or fewer words through a sentence with seven or more words or two short sentences. R-4.2.CC

---

5 Identify a character, setting, or event in a story that is read to the student or that the student reads. R-4.5

CC. The story including a character, setting, or event could range from a sentence of six or fewer words to a sentence of seven words or more or two short sentences. R-4.5.CC

---

6 Identify the narrator or a character in a story that is read to the student or that the student reads. R-4.6

CC. The story containing a character or narrator could range from a sentence of six or fewer words to a sentence of seven words or more or two short sentences. R-4.6.CC

---

Demonstrate comprehension of nonfiction texts and use word analysis strategies

1 Understand the meaning of words in passages that are read to the student or that the student reads. R-4.1

CC. The words could be shown with or without a graphic representation or could appear in a sentence. R-4.1.CC

---

3 Answer questions about a nonfiction text that is read to the student or that the student reads. R-4.3

CC. The nonfiction text could range from a sentence of six or fewer words to a sentence of seven words or more or two short sentences. R-4.3.CC

---

4 Answer questions about the main idea of a nonfiction text that is read to the student or that the student reads. R-4.4

CC. The nonfiction text could range from a sentence of six or fewer words to a sentence of seven words or more or two short sentences. R-4.4.CC

---

7 Identify meaning (an event, idea, or information) of a nonfiction text that is read to the student or that the student reads. R-4.7

CC. The nonfiction text about an event, idea, or information may contain a graphic representation and range from a sentence of six or fewer words to a sentence of seven words or more or two short sentences. R-4.7.CC